FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KENYON CEO TO SPEAK AT 2018 HIGHER EDUCATION RISK MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

15 February 2018 – Kenyon CEO Robert A. Jensen will speak at the University of Texas System’s 2018 Higher Education Risk Management Conference on Monday, 26 March, at 3:15 p.m. (CST) in Lost Pines, Texas.

Jensen’s session will focus on preparing for the loss of an employee or workplace death. Those who attend will learn how to set and manage the expectations of the family, coworkers and public by having a practical plan, the resources needed to respond appropriately and the knowledge of what to expect long before an incident occurs.

The Higher Education Risk Management Conference offers risk management professionals timely information to help prepare for any adverse events impacting universities, employees, students, patients, visitors, and surrounding communities. The conference also offers comprehensive educational opportunities for professionals working in the areas of risk finance and insurance, compliance, information security, environmental health and safety, emergency management, legal affairs, law enforcement, international travel, human resources, workers’ compensation, construction, and much more. For those interested in attending, conference and registration details can be found here: <http://bit.ly/2ySDL4A>.
