FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KENYON CEO TO SPEAK AT INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL CRISIS MANAGEMENT SUMMIT

2 October 2017 – Kenyon CEO Robert A. Jensen will participate in one of several discussion panels at the second International Travel Crisis Management Summit (ITCMS) at Haberdashers Hall on Thursday, 9 November. Joining him are leading experts from industries including travel, hospitality, financial services, technology, government and more. The summit will focus on the latest need-to-know information regarding crisis management and growing threats.

Mr. Jensen’s panel, “Bringing It All Together” focuses on real-world crises with panel members sharing how their affected organizations handled the situations. The goal of the panel is to share the evolution of a crisis management plan.

For interested travel and tourism professionals, tickets for the ITCMS are available for £295+VAT and include the full-day conference and lunch. Register today at: <http://www.itcms.travel>.

The ITCMS, organized by Connecting Travel and part of Jacobs Media Group, Europe’s largest travel and hospitality business-to-business media company, brings together senior leaders from travel organizations, specialist service providers, policy makers and government representatives, all of who are key stakeholders in a coordinated global response to an increasingly complex and prolific threat.
