FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KENYON TO ASSIST ON CHRISTMAS ISLAND

Houston, July 5, 2012 – The Australian Federal Police have asked Kenyon International Emergency Services to help in the repatriation of 18 people who died when a boat capsized off Christmas Island, on the country's North West Coast on June 21, 2012.

Kenyon is sending a response team to Christmas Island to prepare the victims of the tragedy for transport and to escort them to Perth where the Western Australian Coroner will attempt to identify them and determine final internment. Kenyon has performed similar repatriation operations for the Australian Government between December 2010 and March 2011.
