FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KENYON INTERNATIONAL EMERGENCY SERVICES TO SPEAK AT MCCARRAN INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT CRISIS MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

5 September 2018 – Kenyon’s Robert A. Jensen will host a crisis management workshop on Wednesday, 12 September, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. (PDT) at McCarran International Airport in Las Vegas, Nevada. Kenyon’s Vice President, Operations/CEO Elect Simon Hardern will also be in attendance.

The 2-hour workshop will focus on what airline and airport emergency response personnel and those who offer emergency response support should expect during an incident beyond the first few hours and days, going into days 30-60 of a response and highlighting the importance of looking at the “big picture.” Robert plans to offer key insights into what airlines and airports should take into consideration when undergoing crisis management planning.

Jensen leads an international corporation that provides disaster management services to a wide range of industries, as well as local, state and national governments. Prior to joining Kenyon, he was a commissioned officer in the U.S. military. He supervised on ground military mortuary operations in Haiti, Bosnia-Herzegovina, and Croatia. He has directed response efforts to numerous mass fatality incidents. He serves as an international advisor to both government officials and members of the private sector on disaster management issues and is a member of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences.
