

Kenyon International Deploys an Emergency Response Team to an Airline Incident near Resolute Bay, Canada

(Houston, Texas August 21, 2011) Kenyon International Emergency Services, Inc., the world's largest disaster management company has deployed an emergency response assessment team to Resolute Bay, Canada, near the Arctic Circle, in response to an airline crash.

Kenyon will be providing advice and counsel to the airline to help with the accident response, disaster recovery specialists will assist with recovery, repatriation of human remains and the return of their personal belongings.

About Kenyon International

Kenyon is an international leader in worldwide disaster management, providing pre-incident crisis planning and post-emergency response services on behalf of the world's foremost companies. Privately owned, Kenyon remains the only firm in its business with a hundred year history, comprehensive resources, and experience in every type of mass fatality accident including aviation disasters, natural disaster, war and terrorists attacks. Headquartered in Houston, Texas, it has offices and facilities in Sydney, Australia, London, UK, Hong Kong and Beirut, Lebanon.

For more information please contact:

Mario Gomez, Director of Corporate Communications: (281) 872-6074 or 832-641-7478 (Cell) or e-mail at gomezm@kenyoninternational.com