Kenyon Introduces New Specialist Employees

(Houston, Texas) Kenyon International Emergency Services Inc announced today the appointment of two new specialist employees. Mr John Aberdeen and Mr Gavin Solomon have started their new careers at Kenyon's UK facility in Bracknell, Berkshire. Introducing the new employees, Kenyon President, Jerry Novosad explained, "as the world leading company for emergency management, we need the best people available to provide the most professional service. The experience that John and Gavin bring to Kenyon will add significantly to our capability."

Mr Aberdeen will join the Kenyon Operations Department as a specialist in providing family assistance and humanitarian services to those affected by crisis events. Joining Kenyon from a distinguished career with the UK's Metropolitan Police Force, Mr Aberdeen said, "I am very proud to be able to join Kenyon and use the skills and training I learned as a Police Family Liaison Officer".

Mr Solomon joins the Commercial Department as a contingency planning specialist for special projects. Gavin's experience as a planner for the Royal Air Force and for commercial aviation is a perfect fit for his new duties as he explains, "This is a great move for me. I was already a Kenyon associate but the permanent positions will enable me to really spend the time with clients to ensure that there emergency plans and preparedness are fit for purpose."
