Kenyon Appoints Regional Associate in Hong Kong

(Houston, Texas) Kenyon International Emergency Services Inc has announced the appointment of a Customer Services Associate for the Asia-Pacific region. Working from Hong Kong, Florence Jonkers, will be the regional point of contact for Kenyon clients and will represent Kenyon's business to new clients in new business sectors. Ideally qualified for the role, Florence is an experienced communications professional from an aviation background. Speaking of the new appointment, Mr Robert Jensen the Kenyon CEO commented, "the Asia Pacific region is very important for Kenyon. The addition of Florence to the team will ensure that we can provide a first-class and immediately responsive service to our clients."

Regionally, Kenyon has permanent staff in the USA, UK, Australia, Dominican Republic and Lebanon. Resident associates represent Kenyon in several other countries including Hong Kong and Kenya.
