FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KENYON SPONSORED AEROSPACE MBA STUDENT GRADUATES

Houston, September 25, 2013 – Kenyon International Emergency Services supports several international students attending the Masters of Business Administration in Aerospace Management program in Toulouse, France. We’re proud to announce the recent graduation of scholarship recipient Judi Bethune of Canadian carrier Flair Airlines. Judi was selected for the 2012 scholarship award that Kenyon sponsors jointly with aircraft manufacturer ATR. After two years of hard work, Judi received her MBA in Aerospace Management on September 25, 2013. When asked about the experience, Judi said, “I can hardly believe all the hard work, late nights and burning of the midnight oil has finally come to graduation day. Good news!”

Two additional students, Vincent Oyaro of Kenya Airways and Richard Gayira of Air Uganda, are currently working toward their MBA degrees at Toulouse. Kenyon is proud to be part of their professional development.
